Discipleship (following Jesus) is not a programme – it's a mindset, a lifestyle that puts Jesus first and foremost. One where we respond to his love as a wife responds to the love of a husband

Am I following Jesus? It ALL starts with & flows from my relationship with Jesus

The aim of discipleship is to provoke each other to be better lovers of God and others. Anything less is not discipleship but delusion.

Steve Timmis, Acts 29 Network

Discipleship is an intentional pursuit

Mike Breen, Founder of 3DM

You can't commend to others what you don't treasure yourself

Daniel Goodman, City Church Cambridge

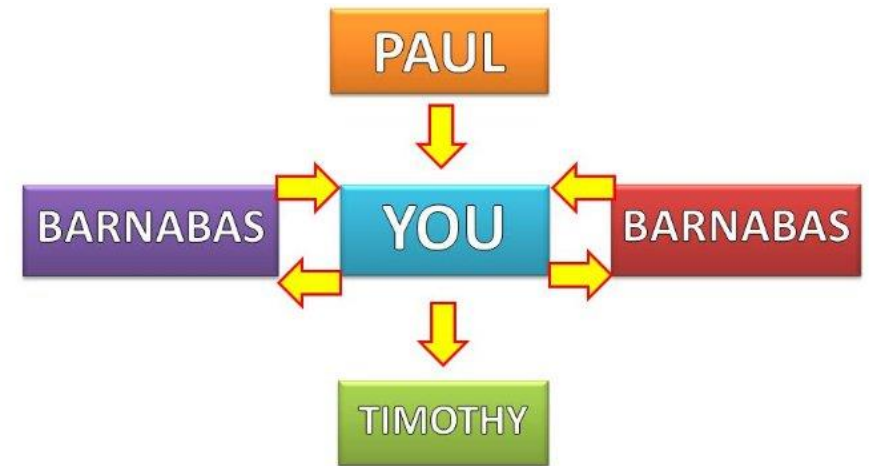

Am I growing in my relationship with Jesus, then am I helping others grow?

Maturity in Christ is God's great purpose for every believer.

David Devenish, Leader of Catalyst (Newfrontiers sphere)

As you therefore have received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in Him, rooted and built up in Him and established in the faith, as you have been taught, abounding in it with thanksgiving.

Colossians 2:6-7 (NKJV)

Am I making disciples?

The highest of all missionary motives is neither obedience to the great commission (important as that is), nor love for sinners who are alienated and perishing (strong as that incentive is, especially when we contemplate the wrath of God), but rather zeal – burning passionate zeal – for the glory of Jesus Christ

John Stott, From The Message of Romans

Iron sharpens iron, and one man sharpens another.

Proverbs 27:17

If the church is the bride of Christ, what sort of bride are we going to be?

What would the church be like if...

- Everyone committed to pray together, and everyone committed to share the gospel together?
- It was marked by deep, genuine and lasting friendships, and was a place marked by love for a broken world?
- It equipped the next generation and gave itself to starting more churches?

Our job is not to build the church, Jesus himself says he will do this. Instead it is to be, grow and make followers of Jesus – with our foundation being our love and respect for Him

To influence and change community, we need to be a community

People come to your church for preaching, music, location etc. but they stay at your church because of relationship. Every single time.

What would life look like if we spent more time praying?

In prayer we win tomorrow's battle tonight.

Terry Virgo, Founder of Newfrontiers

Prayer at its simplest is asking, at its best is conversation, at its deepest is communion
